

ONE LOVE

One Love isn't when you're hugging a person who loves you

One Love isn't when you feel proud of your partner kisses but you can feel the sense of love in the eyes of your cat or dog you can see It when a sheep gives birth to her lamb life isn't a ranking of values of market that you can buy

Life isn't a race where the winner is who kills more

You can help those who are weaker without gaining anything you can defend who have no voice and can't even cry you don't betray, you don't forsake, you'll always be together no turn the way, no think to play, you'll always be very near with your sincere smile, with your true feelings, with your desire to help those who can't even see the light of the sun those who ask to be free like me, like me I can see the sky is not the fate which condemned who live in a cage there is who born to be eaten or killed or skinned we want a life has all his emotions we do not want that nothing can stop it
