

PLEASE SAVE MY LIFE

when you see

blue sky

you can feel

you can try

walking on the hill

carelessly

the smell of life

but not for everyone

there's someone

always alone

and he's always afraid

(2^a strofa) when you take the hand of a child

you feel shake

even tread

by emotions

you can try

the beautiful life

(Rit.) only illusions

bad emotions

no cuddle no caress no loving kiss never see sun

never have fun

locked in cage

has a desire

before he dies

please save my life

only to eat

only to dress

only for money

only for laughs

only to hunt

only for malice

you kill a life

but not everyone

likes this world

someone wants to change

are more and more

(Rit.)
